Appreciating Feedbacks Workshop Report

Aim & Objective of the activity: To help students understand the importance of feedback and how to receive and give feedback effectively.

Date of the Activity:- 28/01/2020

Organizing Unit/Department:- Computer Science

Collaborating Agency:

Program Coordinator:- Miss. Rehman S.A.

Students Participated:- 59

Report of the Activity

The workshop was conducted by a Miss. Rehman S.A. and was attended by 59 students from different majors.
The workshop covered various topics related to feedback, including the benefits of feedback, types of feedback, and how to give and receive feedback effectively. The facilitator emphasized that feedback can be used as a powerful tool for personal and professional growth and can help in building relationships.

The appreciating feedback workshop is designed to teach individuals how to receive feedback in a positive and constructive manner. The workshop emphasized the importance of listening actively, acknowledging the feedback, and responding in a way that demonstrates a willingness to learn and grow. Participants are encouraged to view feedback as an opportunity to improve and to seek out feedback regularly in order to continually develop their skills and abilities.

The workshop also provided strategies for giving feedback effectively and respectfully, with a focus on providing specific and actionable suggestions for improvement.

Ultimately, the appreciating feedback workshop provided participants with valuable insights and tools to help them receive and give feedback effectively. Through interactive exercises, role-playing, and group discussions, participants were able to identify their own strengths and weaknesses when it comes to receiving and giving feedback. They also learned various techniques to help them provide constructive feedback, including the use of specific examples, focusing on behaviours rather than personality, and offering suggestions for improvement.
